CORACLE 2020

A coracle or a 'cwrwg!' as it was originally named in Welsh, is a small, round boat. It was used more than 2000 years ago and is still used today as a fishing boat. We chose this name to represent our maiden journey. There are obstacles and risks, and yet some set sail anyway. Coracle 2020 is a tribute to all those who have taken a chance to do what they love.

The grapes are harvested from a spread of vineyards across Stellenbosch. The Cabernet Franc is from the Bottelary ward, Merlot from the east-facing slope of Simonsberg mountain, Petit Verdot is at 275m above sea-level in the Bottelary ward and Cabernet Sauvignon is planted on various sites within the Bottelary, Helderberg and Polkadraai ridges.

TASTING NOTES

Liquid velvet ruby appearance, this Cabernet-led full-bodied wine delivers flavours of black plum, liquorice and blackberry. It has aromas of bruised violets, rosemary and mint with sweeter oak-derived flavours of cloves and smoke.
