MOSI 2020

Our main purpose is to offer the wine world something a little different. In the spirit of collaboration, we partnered with our friend Joseph Dhafana of Mosi Wines and Spirits to create this blend. Tongai Joseph Dhafana is a refugee turned winemaker, an award-winning Sommelier, a philanthropist, Mosi Wines and Spirits owner, and a wine judge.

The Cabernet Franc is at an altitude of 250m in the Bottelary ward, the Merlot from the east-facing slope of the Simonsberg ridge, the Petit Verdot is at 275m above sea-level in the Bottelary ward and the Cabernet Sauvignon is planted on various sites within the Bottelary, Helderberg and Polkadraai.

TASTING NOTES

This Bordeaux-style blend has fresh aromas of cedar bark and pine needles with deeper layers of blackcurrant, black cherry, plum and liquorice. A full-bodied and balanced wine. Mosi 2020 has ripe tannin with an olive brine saltiness adding a savoury finish.

TONGAI JOSEPH DHAFANA

A refugee turned winemaker, an award-winning Sommelier, a philanthropist, Mosi Wines and Spirits owner and wine judge. Joseph participated and came third in the Best Wine Taster awards in South Africa in 2015.
